Colts Score the Only Earned Run, Then Lose to Bugs.

PITCHING HONORS EVEN

Verbot and Loos Both Worked Well, but Good Fortune Favored the Latter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., August 9.—The Red Sox celebrated their return from a trip of a week on the road by defeating Richmond in the first of the series. The pitching honors were about evenly divided between Verbot and Loos, though the latter showed up best during the last half of the game, and did some timely work with the stick, securing three singles out of three times at the bat. The batting of Loos added materially to the winning of the victory.

While neither team fielded brilliantly, the mistakes of the Richmonders came at the right critical stages, and the locals pulled off two double plays, both of which were fast. Reinhardt at third played a clever game and figured in both of the doubles.

Colts Secured First Run.
Richmond led off with the run-getting in the second inning, when Sandherr doubled after two men were out. Selber was given a pass, and both runners scored on Messitt's two-sacker to right. In the fourth Danville scored when Fisher singled, was sacrificed by Powell, took third on Verbot's bunt throw, and came home on Laughtin's sacrifice fly to Wallace.

Danville won in the seventh, when with one out Reinhardt singled and took second when Sandherr muffed Westlake's bouncer. Loos then hit to center field, Reinhardt remaining at third base, but coming home after Messitt had let Wallace's throw get away from him. Sullivan was given his base on balls, and Magee was safe getting Sullivan at second. Westlake scored on the play.

LUCKY DOANE IS IN ON ANOTHER

Lynchburg Beaten When Roanokers Land on Dickenson in Ninth Inning.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, Va., August 9.—After a nine-inning contest Roanoke won by a score of 3 to 2. Both teams started in as if the score would run into two figures, but after the third inning, when Dickenson relieved Vernue, and Doane had settled down to his usual form, there was nothing doing. The slabsmen were given excellent support, and in several instances the support given the pitchers prevented runs.

Neither team gained a hit from the third to the ninth. In the last time up Newton connected fairly for a three-bagger. Shaughnessy followed and sent one to right field for two or more bases, but after Newton had scored he stopped and the game was over with one out. Stanley Biglow was chased out of the game in the second by Umpire Hennegar for his very strenuous kick on a decision.

The game abounded in line drives, more being made than in any game seen here this season. There was some guessing as to why Dickenson took Vernue out in the third, he apparently having pitched good ball and a clean single to his credit. Dickenson pitched well, and was only landed on in the ninth. The score:

TRUCKERS BEAT CRIPPLED TEAM

Norfolk, With Three Men Out, Is Outclassed by Tail-Enders.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., August 9.—Showing up in the field in a crippled condition, with Busch, Hopkins and Bonner out of the game because of lameness, and Valdosta and Mulaney in the dugout, the Truellers landed on Oley for a victory in the first inning and clinched it by hitting Temple, his relief, the final score being 6 to 1.

To make the game easier for the Truellers, the fans put up bonehead work several times on the bases, losing three runs in this manner. The Truellers were in the form, and fielded in a phenomenal manner. Oley, who was also heavy in the pinches, Guheen was the bright and particular star, lobbing the Tars of Norfolk, who were in the dugout, a brilliant ball for the Tars. The score:

RACE GROWING HOTTER

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., August 9.—Philadelphia early defeated Detroit this afternoon, 7 to 1, the result giving the home team two victories in the series to Detroit's one and making the battle for first place more exciting than ever. A crowd of 16,746 persons turned out.

In the fifth inning the home team scored two runs on four errors without making a hit. Philadelphia put up a sensational game in the field, giving Krause such grand support that the visitors were able to secure only one run, although they slugged the ball much harder than the hit column indicates. Barry robbed the visitors of several hits, while Hartzel and Oldring pulled down drives which looked good for extra bases. Baker was the batting star, with two long drives, one of which cleared the right field fence for a home run. Donovan, of Detroit, was to pitch to-day, but he was served with a notice of suspension by President Johnson for disputing a decision in last Saturday's game. Manager Jennings was sent off the changing line for arguing with Umpire Evans this afternoon. The score:

RACES AT SARATOGA.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 9.—A fairly good card, which included two handicaps and selling events, was run off at Saratoga to-day. The first of the day was in the afternoon, and was a walkover, but you will be fooled. She casts her votes for Sandherr.

Just before the balloting closed last night, one of Waymack's friends rushed breathlessly into the office and handed out $75 votes for his favorite, "Can I get them in?" he asked. "The whole town is working for him." In a little over three weeks the contest will get on its feet, and the thousands of votes will be printed in that time.

Will Print All Records Sunday 25%

Many requests have been received from readers of the sporting page asking the averages of individual players for the season of various players in the league, other than on the Richmond team. It has been impossible to secure official statistics from Secretary Gregory, but next Sunday, August 15, the unofficial records will be printed, and will not be far wrong. The Times-Dispatch files have been used in figuring the averages, and many of the box scores received are furnished by official scorers in the other cities around the circuit. The figures will include pitchers' records, as well as the batting and batting averages of each individual player who has been in the league since April. Secretary Gregory is not required to furnish records at off times during the season, and his office is in doing so would be to promote and advance interest in the sport.

It includes all Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, Go-Carts, Summer Chairs, and Rockers, many of which are worthy a place inside your home as well as on your porch. Porch Screens, etc. This is a great opportunity.

GREAT DANVILLE MILLS COMBINE

Will Be Largest Corporation of Its Kind in South, if Not in Country.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., August 9.—Separate meetings of the directors of the Dan River Power and Manufacturing Company and the Riverside Cotton Mills, both large milling concerns, will be held on Thursday for the purpose of considering and acting upon a joint agreement to consolidate the two corporations. The two cotton mills of New River, owned and controlled by the same interests, R. A. Schoolfield being the president and H. R. Fitzgerald, secretary and treasurer of both. The Riverside company, parent organization, has a capital of about $3,000,000, and the Dan River company about $5,000,000. It is reported that after the consolidation, which looks probable, the capital stock may be advanced to $10,000,000, making the largest milling corporation in the South. It is not in the United States. The mills here have both been remarkably successful, and more than $1,000,000 worth of improvements is now in progress at the plant of the Dan River company.
